Turner and others 2013 Controversies and priorities in Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis

Martin R Turner PhD, Prof Orla Hardiman MD, Michael Benatar DPhil, Prof Benjamin R Brooks MD, Prof Adriano Chio MD, Prof Mamede de Carvalho MD, Prof Paul G Ince MD, Cindy Lin PhD, Robert G Miller MD, Prof Hiroshi Mitsumoto MD, Prof Garth Nicholson MD, Prof John Ravits MD, Prof Pamela J Shaw MD, Prof Michael Swash MD, Prof Kevin Talbot DPhil, Bryan J Traynor MD, Prof Leonard H Van den Berg MD, Jan H Veldink MD, Steve Vucic PhD, Prof Matthew C Kiernan DSc, (2013), 'Controversies and priorities in Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis', The Lancet Neurology, Volume 12, Issue 3, Pages 310 - 322

A group of ALS/MND focused neuroscientists met at Fort Denison in Sydney Harbour, Australia, during the 2011 International ALS/MND Symposium to debate controversies in ALS pathogenesis—some longstanding—and to consider future research strategies likely to herald an advanced therapeutic era. Matthew Kierman and Martin Turner conceived and planned the Fort Denison meeting. All authors contributed to meeting discussions and editing of the paper.

Abstract available online